NOTE 1

Greetings. Order number 95. Based on the details we collected about you on [REDACTED] 18, 1970, and after examining the recorded time, your birth time is [REDACTED] PM. That is with the adjustment. Then, once the adjustment is removed, it becomes 5:07. When calculated for this time, you are assigned the Virgo ascendant. Gemini Navamsa. The lord of the Virgo ascendant is Mercury. Mercury is in the eighth house. With a conjunction of Sun, Mercury, Venus, and Saturn. Mercury is in a friendly state. And is also in a friendly state in the eighth house of the Rashi chart. Therefore, this signifies innate intelligence, and beyond that, an investigative ability, the skill for calculation, mathematical and measurement tasks, writing, and business acumen. Along with that, you have speaking ability. You also have the ability to express yourself. Sometimes, when you become impulsive, what you are about to say might get tangled. Such strong impulsiveness comes to you. Alright, next, in your horoscope, not even one of the four main houses, 1, 4, 7, and 10, had strong planetary influence. I have mentioned this before as well. Due to this reason, various troubles and obstacles arise in early childhood. But in later life, as you move beyond youth and enter middle age, your life and future will rise to a very prominent level. Along with that, you possess

Then, when one's effort, fortune, and intelligence come together, what a beautiful path clears up. When moving forward with strength and intelligence combined, that path becomes very well and clearly established. Once established, victory can be achieved through it. You have already achieved this victory. However, you can achieve more such victories in the future. Through stability in responsible positions, diligently performed for a long time, one can sometimes earn a name for the organization, the region, or even the country. You work with persistent effort. From that, no injustice will ever befall you. Sometimes, when one undertakes their work, they don't work looking at their salary. They continue doing it as if it's their own. Even if immediate results are not obtained, as time passes, having reached stability, one's own progress can be further developed through that. Another thing is that it is easy for you to win from challenges and competitive situations. Along with that, you have the ability to overcome things that create opposition, face their challenges, endure those challenges, and move forward. Not only that, the inborn desire to investigate deep matters of life can be named as a special characteristic. You can investigate esoteric sciences, or ancient things, and beyond that, archaeological matters. You can advance further in that direction. Now let's look at your marriage. In your horoscope, the seventh house is Pisces. The lord of Pisces is Jupiter. Jupiter is in Libra with directional strength. The lord of Libra is Venus. Jupiter and Venus are eternal enemies. So then, Jupiter is there as if residing in an enemy

I don't think those will be that important now. It was asked about the children's children, regarding a child born. That is difficult to say from this horoscope because if the horoscopes of that child's parents were available, it could have been said about that. Or if that child's birth time was available, that too could have been said. Nevertheless, your children are truly good. Considering this horoscope, the nature of those children is intelligent, skilled in execution, and they try to implement their own ideas. That means to work independently. To perform important roles in professional life, they possess the mother's qualities. Even if they take advice from elders, in the end, they implement their own advice. Your children are people who act on advice, this is right. So, according to your birth star, it is Uttara Phala Nakshatra. According to this star, when transacting, act very carefully. Hmm. You can fall victim to deceivers. Due to compassion, you can fall victim to undeserving people. Not always, but in some instances. Therefore, be mindful of that. As for looking at your planetary period, the Saturn Maha Dasha is now running. He is an inauspicious ruler. Saturn. Saturn is weak at birth. Because it was in a weak position, Saturn, who is inauspicious, is generally considered someone who brings inauspicious results, isn't it? So then, this one who brings inauspicious results is weak. Then, it's exactly like a tough guy developing paralysis. Then

Then, when frustrations are created and when frustrations arise, that is when anyone goes to the spiritual side. If disappointments do not arise, one will only continue to enjoy worldly pleasures and will not go to that side, right? Then, no matter how much is lost, when you feel like giving, you will receive somehow. If it's towards the spiritual side, from Mahadasha. During Ketu's Antardasha, if there is such a thing as physical weaknesses, they exist even now. Even now you have more drowsiness than usual. Physical weaknesses are increased. Such a situation exists even now. That, however, will pass by the work in them will increase and become tiresome, and some troubles will come. From weariness, job changes, and various other things. It is during that period that help and assistance can be received from unexpected people. That is how it is at this time. During Ketu's Antardasha in Saturn's Mahadasha, from until the Uttama Bhara of '32, troubles will reduce a bit more. Okay. By that period, that affliction due to Saturn will also

One should wish for good karma to emerge and for progress to be achieved. Because we have past bad karma. That's why I will show you from your horoscope itself. The first thing is, you were not born on a bed of roses and did not just go straight ahead. You were born and went forward amidst troubles and obstacles. So why were you born amidst troubles and obstacles? There must have been a past bad karma of ours there. A somewhat big one. You took great effort to go forward. That too is a bad karma. However, you had the ability to go. Because there was the power of past good karma. In previous lives, you have helped others just like in this life. You have shared intellectual property. From that, you also receive that ability, intelligence, courage, and strength, all of it. Actually, you are not wealthy. You are a spring from which wealth can be found. Therefore, I wish ultimate victory to you who are going forward having eliminated the power of past bad karma. If there is anything else you need to know, tell me in the future. Okay. Thank you very much.
